I want users to be able to press the keyboard (not a mouse or touch pad) and type in a textbox, or even type in the URL bar of the page. A: You can do it using the "contenteditable" attribute. It works for both Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox. For example, if you want to allow users to type in a textbox: You could add some CSS styles to make it look better: .contenteditable { background: #ececec; padding: 10px; border: 1px solid #CCC; color: #5e5e5e; 2edc1e01e8
