Madhavan) is a young housewife who makes a living by selling insurance policies. She lives in a middle-class home that is a closeted version of the one in which her parents lived - a home where both her husband and husband's parents are less than perfect. Urvashi's husband, Satish (Manoj Bajpayee), is a successful vice president at a large software firm who believes his job is all that matters. They have a daughter, who is too young to be aware that her parents' marriage is anything but ideal. It is also a household where strict rules are laid down, and every act of disobedience is met with guilt and shame.When Satish's mother dies and his father seems somewhat distant after the loss, he hopes for a reconciliation with him. His father-in-law has completely different ideas about family, and he isn't about to change in order to please Urvashi's husband.Unfortunately, even as Satish and his wife try to put their marriage on a firm footing, they struggle
